The Journey of the White Jaguars

WINNER

AEI-Su Avtaikina, age 5
Petropavlovsk-Kamchatsky.

"Family Trip to the Volcano"

El-Su loves to paint—especially when her mom spreads a large sheet of paper out on the table. She also loves swinging, feeding bread to the ducks on the lake, dancing, and singing. Among her favorite books are stories about animals, especially tigers and bears. She also really loves music and unusual sounds: "I love the sound of the wind and songs from cartoons."»

El-Su describes herself this way: "I'm cheerful, but sometimes quiet; calm, but with a lot of strength inside. I love it when everything is honest and friendly."»

She dreams of learning to ride a horse fast, like a real rider, and of seeing a volcano breathe fire. She has colorful dreams—as if she's flying over the hills on a unicorn or drawing a huge rainbow over a river: "And I also dream that I met a real white jaguar—and he speaks to me in a human voice."

Winning the competition brings El-Su great joy: "It means my mom and dad will say, 'El-Su, you did great!' And that my drawing will go to other children so they'll want to travel, too."

El-Su encourages everyone not to be afraid to draw big mountains and funny animals: "Let children look at the world and draw what they truly love!"
